

BACH FLOWER REMEDIES PETS

BACH REMEDY	STATE OF EMOTIONS
Agrimony	Animals that never complain, even when in pain; appear fine but have “pained” or “worried” look in eyes
Aspen	Fears or apprehensions of unknown cause, sudden anxiety, spooks easily, jumpy
Beech	Intolerance of other animals or people, easily irritated or annoyed, intolerant of change in routine
Centaury	Insecure or overanxious to please, submissive
Cerato	Lack of confidence and initiative. Looks for approval/very dependent on human caretakers
Cherry Plum	Uncontrollable behaviour (licking, barking, urinating, jumping up, etc.), compulsiveness, panicky
Chestnut Bud	Failure to learn from experience, repeats same mistakes over and over (chew furniture, jumping up, etc.)
Chicory	Clingy behaviour, attention seeking, won't let owner out of sight, overprotective
Clematis	Help increase attention span, disinterested, lazy
Crab Apple	Cleansing, excessive over grooming/licking, shaved fur due to matting, etc., eating feces, eliminating in own area such as a crate
Elm	Feeling overwhelmed/stressed, leaving a home, sharing a litter box, etc,
Gentian	Discouragement, loss of appetite (give up and stop eating)
Gorse	Appear to have given up, animals in kennels or shelters for a long time
Heather	Animals that seek attention constantly, bark excessively, tear up the house, don't listen to owners
Holly	Jealousy, specific likes and dislikes, hard time getting along with other animals/people, animals who have been neglected

Honeysuckle	Homesickness, being placed in a new home, becoming depressed or pining when away from home, loss of master or other animals in home
Hornbeam	Tiredness and weariness, especially more so in the morning, lack of get up and go, constant changes in routine (may have a difficult time adjusting to owner's home on weekend and going back to work on Monday, etc.)
Impatiens	Impatience, irritability, can't wait to go out, pulls on leash, eating fast, etc.
Larch	Loss of confidence, intimidated by other animals, easily dominated by other animals
Mimulus	Fears of known cause such as thunderstorms, loud noises, vacuum cleaner, fireworks, baths, travelling in car, etc.
Mustard	Depression for no apparent reason
Oak	Overworked or exhausted but continues to keep going, medical conditions where rest is needed but animal keeps being very active and "pushing through" the pain or discomfort
Olive	Complete exhaustion, older animals who sleep a great deal
Pine	Feelings of guilt, can be picked up from owner's who feel guilt
Red Chestnut	Fear and anxiety over others, overprotectiveness, mother's don't let anyone near their young
Rock Rose	Extreme fear or panic, terror, after an accident or injury
Rock Water	Inflexibility and adaptability, dominant behaviour, stress from changes in routine
Scleranthus	Imbalance and indecision, fluctuating moods, going inside and outside over and over, etc., clumsy
Star of Bethlehem	Restore calmness after mental, emotional or physical shock, animals coming from a shelter with unknown background
Sweet Chestnut	Extreme mental anguish
Vervain	Over enthusiasm, always on the go (can't get enough exercise, etc.) hyperactivity, chase cars, won't quit barking
Vine	Dominant, territorial behaviour

Walnut	Adapting to new circumstances/changes such as people joining or leaving household, moving to new home, long separation from family, weaning, teething, coming into heat, after neutering
Water Violet	Aloofness, reserved, prefers being on own and distant from others
White Chestnut	Restlessness during sleep, obsessive behaviours, mother's constantly moving their young
Wild Oat	Lack of direction, don't perform to their capacities, animals who are trained to work and be pets
Wild Rose	Resignation and apathy, lack of enjoyment, disinterest in food for no apparent reason, older animal having to tolerate a younger animal
Willow	Maliciousness, sulkiness, acting out by spite: inappropriate urination (such as on the couch or owner's bed), destructiveness (usually of owner's property), etc.
Rescue Remedy	Combination of 5 remedies: Impatiens, Clematis, Rock Rose, Cherry Plum and Star of Bethlehem. Used for stress and upset or following trauma. It helps to restore calm and relaxation.

Please note that Bach Flower Remedies are used to help restore emotional imbalances and do not replace the need for veterinary care. This content is not intended to diagnose or treat any diseases.